

Minh Nguyen

VOLUNTEER AT SLUSH 2023

Minh Nguyen was a part of the Speaker Buddies team at Slush during the fall of 2023. They were responsible for:

- Helping a Slush 2023 world-class speaker 1-on-1 during the speaker's stay in Helsinki
- Offering top-notch customer service to the speaker and their team
- Acting as a speaker's Executive Assistant, helping with any ad-hoc tasks ranging from arranging rides and meetings to planning and hosting the speaker's free-time agenda

We were all impressed by Minh Nguyen and the way they handled their tasks as a Volunteer. We were especially satisfied to see their responsibilities being executed autonomously, efficiently and reliably. Even in hectic situations, we could trust Minh Nguyen to take care of their duties and our volunteers with a positive attitude. We are grateful for the inclusive and uplifting team dynamic Minh Nguyen succeeded in creating. No wonder our attendees praised the event and the customer service. We would be delighted to collaborate with Minh Nguyen in the future and wish to recommend them for taking on additional responsibilities.

Slush is a student-driven, not-for-profit movement with the mission to help and create the next generation of groundbreaking entrepreneurs. Today, Slush is the most founder-focused event on earth, bringing together founders, investors, executives, and media for a curated gathering of 13,000 attendees.

The event would simply not happen without our 1,600 enthusiastic volunteers, who create the Slush Magic.
